```
http://localhost:3001/

                    App.js [browser]
                    EmployeeList    View        /employee      get EmployeeAdd                 /employee/100   get EmployeeEdit                /employee      POST /employee/100  PUT React   axios               /employee/100  DELETE browser                  fetch http nodejs web service        MongoDB
                                                http://localhost:4000
                                                                          emptab
```

Redux

Store---central place where the data/state is stored and displayed in view

Reducers---these are functions, which will modify state, and then view will be updated

Action----- it is a object which has 2 properties one is type and payload